Carl Weiner Speaks at PBI program on Condominium Law

December 1, 2012, Lansdale Pennsylvania: Carl Weiner, the co-chair of the firm's Real Estate Department, recently spoke on Enforcement of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions at a Pennsylvania Bar Institute seminar entitled "Condominium & Homeowner Associations – Lessons on Liabilities, Liens and Litigations."

For over two decades, Carl Weiner has handled an enormous array of real estate law matters for Delaware Valley clients, ranging from zoning and land development to real estate financing and acquisition. He is widely regarded as one of the area's leading attorneys in association law, based on his work in the development of over 100 condominium and homeowners' associations and ongoing representation of numerous associations. A frequent lecturer for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the Community Association Institute (CAI) and the Montgomery Bar Association (MBA), Carl is a past Chairman of the MBA's Specialization Committee and Real Estate Land Use Committee. He is also a past President of the Pennsylvania/Greater Delaware Valley Chapter of CAI. A graduate of Boston University School of Law in 1981, Carl received his undergraduate degree from Brown University in 1978.

Hamburg, Rubin, Mullin, Maxwell & Lupin is one of the leading law firms in Eastern Pennsylvania providing legal counsel to businesses, municipalities and individuals in such areas as business law, litigation, real estate matters, municipal law, trusts and estates, family law, criminal law and personal injury matters. The firm's singular focus is on achieving the best possible result for its clients.
