Attorney Lisa A. Shearman Presents at Pennsylvania Bar Institute Seminar on Act 95 Power of Attorney Law

MONTGOMERY COUNTY, Pennsylvania, September 21, 2014: The law firm of Hamburg, Rubin, Mullin, Maxwell & Lupin is pleased to announce that attorney Lisa A. Shearman recently presented at Pennsylvania Bar Institute's seminar, "Act 95; The New POA Law." The seminar provided attendees with an in depth look at the extensive changes to the law governing Pennsylvania powers of attorney.

Lisa Shearman has been advising clients throughout the Commonwealth for over 20 years. Her practice focuses in the area of wealth management, including estate planning, estate administration, tax planning and business succession. She incorporates a team approach in counseling clients and facilitates interaction among all of her clients' professional advisors to ensure comprehensive results are obtained. Her knowledge of the state and federal tax laws enables her to provide sophisticated planning solutions for her clients. Lisa is licensed to practice before the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Bars, and is a member of the Pennsylvania (PBA) and Montgomery Bar Associations and the Montgomery County Estate Planning Council. She was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States on December 16, 2013. Lisa serves as the National Affiliate Director of the "Wills for Heroes Foundation," a program devoted to providing free wills and other estate planning documents for Pennsylvania's emergency first responders. Lisa is a member of the Board of Directors of the Legal Clinic for the Disabled, Inc., which provides free high-quality legal services to low-income people with physical disabilities and to the deaf and hard of hearing in Philadelphia, Bucks, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania. She is the 2013 Recipient of the Honorable Milton O. Moss Public Service Award, presented by the Montgomery Bar Foundation for her work with the Wills for Heroes Foundation. Lisa is the 2011 Recipient of the Verdina Showell Award, presented by the PBA to recognize a lawyer's outstanding community service and commitment to the Wills for Heroes Program and has been recognized by other organizations for her pro bono service. A graduate of Villanova's Graduate Tax Program (LL.M. 1994), Lisa received her law degree from Widener University School of Law in 1992 and her undergraduate degree from the University of Scranton in 1989. She is a member of the Women in Profession Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and Women in Law Committee of the Montgomery Bar Association.
